- ABOUT CHINESE
LANGUAGE
BRIDGE CUP
CONTEST Launched in 2005, the contest aims to provide Bay Area Chinese-learning students with a chance to show their Chinese proficiency and cultural skills, which helps to grow their interest in Chinese language and culture. This year's competition includes brush calligraphy, pen calligraphy, drawing and painting, Chinese composition and Chinese poetry recital. Now in its 15th year, more than 1,100 students from more than 100 local schools participate in the competition.
