Public comment:
SFUSD parent Wendy Jones spoke to call for establishing a girls' soccer program at the middle school level. The current coed soccer program basically excludes girls, she said.
SFUSD teacher Aaron Weiss spoke to call for establishing a girls' soccer program at the middle school level. Girls are reluctant even to try out for the coed soccer teams, he said.
SFUSD parent Kristen Tucker spoke to call for establishing a girls' soccer program at the middle school level.
SFUSD parent and SSC member Alfredo Vergara Logo spoke to call for establishing a girls' soccer program.

Business:
For the remainder of the meeting, the CAC divided into small groups to interview directors and other representatives of programs funded by Prop. H, to assist in making recommendations to the Board of Education for next fiscal year's Prop. H funding.

The meeting was adjourned as the teams concluded their interviews.
