

RAVE Nominee

Name: Jennifer Man

Department/School: Spring Valley Elementary School

Title: Teacher

Why are you nominating this employee?

Jennifer Man goes beyond the call of duty when it comes to helping her students and well as their parents. She truly cares about each child and works long hours each day to continue to give them the education they so rightfully deserve.

What are some of the positive qualities that distinguish this employee's work?

Jennifer is very detailed and organized. She plans her lessons while keeping in mind each students' individual learning style. What makes her unique? She teaches the way teachers are supposed to teach. Unfortunately, not all teachers teach this way. Jennifer's classroom is print-rich and is very pleasant to be in. The room, alone, makes the students happy to be at school. In addition, Jennifer is aware and recognizes the importance of all cultures while never neglecting her own students' Chinese background and language.

Please give us a specific example of something that this employee did/does that you would like to recognize:

Not only does Jennifer spend extra time helping her students, she is a team player, always assisting her second grade colleagues with ideas or support. Moreover, Jennifer is a good listener and offers great advice when it comes to working with difficult students. Jennifer also has a good rapport with students' parents. Parents of former students still come to her after many years to seek advice or help on different school matters.

Is there anything else you would like to tell us about why you think this employee should be recognized?

Jennifer Man is a positive thinker and passes her good attitude on to her students. She is aware of the importance intelligent behaviors and uses best practices. A good teacher teaches by example and who is a great role model. Jennifer is one of these teachers. She definitely deserves to be recognized for her hard work and efforts.
