Slanted Door Chef Shares Healthy Cooking with Elementary Students

WHAT
Slanted Door chef Charles Phan will be whipping up a batch of something special with students at Hillcrest Elementary as part of SFUSD’s Chefs in the Classroom program.

WHEN
Wednesday, March 9 / 11:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m.

WHERE
Hillcrest ES / 810 Silver Avenue

WHO
Slanted Door Executive Chef Charles Phan
Hillcrest Elementary Students

WHY
Phan, who fled with his family from Cambodia in the 70’s, graduated from SFUSD’s Mission High and is now known for his cutting-edge Vietnamese cuisine and thriving restaurant business in San Francisco.

SFUSD’s Chef in the Classroom program is a nutrition education project that works to increase the likelihood that low-income children and families will make healthy food choices. Visiting chefs are chosen for their practical experience, flair for presentation, and ability to model the best practices of their profession.

AUDIO/VISUAL:
Phan and the students will be cooking a dish together while he talks about the culinary profession and his philosophy for healthy eating.
