

Stand Up, Don't Stand By: How to put an end to bullying in a 24/7 digital world

A special presentation and discussion for middle school students, teachers and parents, featuring:

George Gascón, San Francisco District Attorney and Merve Lapus, Educational Program Manager:

Thursday, October 27, 2011

6pm-7:30pm

Marina Middle School

3500 Fillmore St. San Francisco CA 94123

Today's 24/7 media world is changing the nature of childhood and education. This presentation will explore how media and technology impact the way kids play, learn and interact, and how this affects our community. In honor of national bullying prevention month, we will focus on real-life solutions to challenges such as cyberbullying and privacy, and provide tips to help us all become good digital citizens. Brought to you in partnership with San Francisco District Attorney's office, 2nd District PTA, and the San Francisco Unified School District.

Questions? Contact Katy Miller: 415-553-1110 or Colby Zintl: 415-309-2450.

SFUSD

PTA[®]

everychild. one voice.[®]