District Students Testify at American Bar Association Hearing on Hispanic Legal Rights and Responsibilities

WHAT High school students from SFUSD will provide testimony of their experiences at the second of six hearings held nationwide by the American Bar Association (ABA) Commission on Hispanic Legal Rights and Responsibilities.

WHEN Thursday, January 13 / 9:00 a.m. - 1:30 p.m. (Students will present their experiences at approximately 12:35 p.m.)

WHERE SF Board of Education Board Room
555 Franklin St. (at McAllister St.)

WHO ABA Commission on Hispanic Legal Rights and Responsibilities members, including SFUSD General Counsel Maribel Medina, the only Commission representative working in K-12 education

SFUSD high school students (joining live and via satellite)

WHY According to the ABA, the testimonies will be used to foster a discussion about the state of the legal landscape and its impact on Latinos in the U.S. Both SFUSD students and expert witnesses will testify on a range of topics related to the state of Latinos in the United States, including the topic of Latino youth and the educational pipeline.

AUDIO/ VISUAL: Mission High students, expert witnesses, and a panel of ABA commissioners discussing the current state of Latinos in the U.S.