SF Board of Education Commissioner Elected President of California School Boards Association

December 3, 2010 (San Francisco) – San Francisco Board of Education commissioner Jill Wynns has been elected to lead the California School Boards Association (CSBA) board of directors.

Wynns was voted in Thursday, December 2, during the organization’s annual conference. She will serve in 2011 as president-elect and then as president in 2012. It is the first time a San Francisco school board member has been elected to the association's board.

Wynns has been a member of the SF Board of Education since 1993 and served as president of the board in 2001 and 2002. She also served as chair of the Budget Committee for five years. As a board member she has championed student representation and parent involvement and has been nationally recognized for her opposition to the commercialization and privatization of public schools. She is the author of the district’s healthy foods policy.

The California School Boards Association is a collaborative group of virtually all of the state’s more than 1,000 school districts and county offices of education.
