Children, Community Celebrate New Elevator
Allowing More Inclusive Enrollment

WHAT
Grand opening of a new elevator at Commodore Stockton Child Development Center with a ribbon cutting ceremony, lion dancing and children's performances

WHEN
Wednesday, June 23rd, 3:30 – 5:00 p.m.

WHERE
Commodore Stockton CDC – 1 Trenton Street (cross street Washington, between Stockton and Powell)

WHO
Board of Education Commissioner Norman Yee
Jean Monroe, Dir. Compliance & Quality Assurance, Child Development Program
Linda Duong, Fiscal & Operations Manager, Child Development Program
Commodore Stockton CDC staff, students, families and community members

WHY
This SFUSD Child Development Center, which currently offers a year-round bilingual educational program inspired by the Reggio Emilia Approach for 250 students Pre-K through 4th grade and has a waiting list of over 300, is four stories high in the Chinatown neighborhood. Now, with Americans with Disabilities Act-compliant bathrooms and new elevator, students with disabilities may enroll and their family members who may have disabilities will be able to visit the classrooms.

AUDIO/VISUAL:
A traditional lion dance complete with drums and firecrackers will be performed, a roast pig feast will be held, and a new song, “The Commodore Stockton CDC Song,” will be sung by students, Commissioner Yee will be making remarks.
