Introducing...

CALIFORNIA THURSDAYS

starting 10.23.14

showcasing...
Diestel Farms Turkey

- from Sonora, California
- turkeys are raised without antibiotics and fed a vegetarian diet of grains milled on the Diestel ranch
- Did you know? ALL turkey sandwiches made by Revolution Foods for SFUSD use Diestel turkey (not just the ones served on 10.23!)

Joan Diestel will be visiting Balboa HS to showcase the humane and sustainable practices on her turkey farm on upcoming California Thursdays, look forward to...

- Massa rice from the Massa family farm near the Sacramento River
- Crisp, sweet carrots grown in Bakersfield
- Fresh green leaf lettuce, broccoli, and celery from California’s Salinas Valley, “the salad bowl of the world”

California Thursdays is a collaboration between the Center for Ecoliteracy, participating public school districts and allied organizations to serve healthy, freshly prepared school meals made from California-grown fruits and vegetables.
More about CALIFORNIA THURSDAYS

• SFUSD is featuring California Thursdays by highlighting healthy, freshly prepared school meals made from California-grown ingredients on the menu

• SFUSD values offering appealing school meals that support student health and academic achievement while contributing to local economies and protecting the environment

• It’s a win-win-win proposition! Healthier students are better learners, local purchases help the local economy, and we do our part for the environment

• California Thursdays is a collaboration between the Center for Ecoliteracy, participating public school districts and allied organizations to serve healthy, freshly prepared school meals made from California-grown fruits and vegetables